

HUB Wins €15 Million Project with a Prominent Swiss Aviation Vendor

December 6, 2023 1:59 PM EST

Management estimates the project to span over 3 years and potentially expand in scope and service revenues

TEL AVIV, Israel, Dec. 06, 2023 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- via IBN -- HUB Cyber Security Ltd. (Nasdaq: HUBC), a developer of Confidential Computing cybersecurity solutions and services ("HUB"), is announcing today that it has agreed to provide services in connection with a framework agreement with a prominent Swiss aviation vendor at an initial scope of approximately EURO 15.5 million, with potential expansions over the next three years.

According to the agreement, HUB is to provide a wide range of solutions and services for cyber data security alongside ongoing systems safety and reliability analysis. Specifically, HUB has been tasked to secure a unique aviation project involving an advanced electric and hydrogen powered, vertical-take-off-and-landing (VTOL) airplane. Among other services, HUB is to provide its confidential computing cybersecurity solutions to assess and prevent failure conditions at the aircraft level, identification of potential risks and failure points, data collection and system reliability prediction.

For the first phase of the project, the vendor is expected to pay an approximate total of EURO 15.5 million based on milestone payments over the course of the project.

HUB CEO, Noah Hershcovitz, commented: "Once again, this vote of confidence validates our core technology and we look forward to additional wins and announcements in the near future. We believe that long-term projects with global top-tier clientele will make all the difference on our turnaround. My team and I are dedicated to the business and bringing clear tangible results to secure long-term investors' confidence in our brand."
